§ 2 Conclusion of Contract

2.1 The following Rental Conditions of the PKM GmbH, hereinafter referred to as the "rental company", apply to all orders for rental items and structures as well as the rental of exhibition space. Contrary conditions imposed by the renter shall not be recognized. Deviating conditions or supplementary agreements shall only be effective if there is a confirmation signed by the rental company.

2.2 Orders for rental items and the rental of exhibition space must be submitted in writing. All orders received before the registration deadline specified on the order form and binding trade fair registrations shall be confirmed before the beginning of the event. If the renter has not received a written confirmation of his duly filed order and registration by one week prior to the event, he must notify the rental company immediately. 2.3 The rental company reserves the right to deliver the ordered goods and services only after payment has been received.

§ 3 Mode of Use of Goods

The renter understands that the rental items are usually used multiple times for exhibitions and are not always in new condition.

3.2 The rental items are made available only for their intended purpose for the duration of the event, and shall only be used by the renter at the agreed rental location.

3.3 It is not permitted to allow third parties to use the rental items. Plans, designs, drawings, production and assembly information remain the property of the rental company with all rights thereto, including the time during which the renter has use of them.

3.4 Upon receipt of the goods, the renter is responsible for verifying the proper condition of transport safety and the completeness of the rental items as well as the exhibition space.

3.5 Upon receiving the exhibition space or at the beginning of the rental term, the renter must confirm that the space and items rented are free of defects, unless he submits an immediate claim in writing to the rental company.

3.6 The rental company agrees to deliver the goods and make the rental space available in due time before the beginning of the event, provided it has received the stand registration and orders before the deadline.

3.7 If there is no personnel present at the trade fair stand at delivery, the placement of the rental items at the trade fair stand is considered to be proper delivery.

3.8 The rental company is not required to check the authorization of the persons present at the stand upon delivery of the rental items.

3.9 Delivery dates and times and special requests are effective only when expressly confirmed in writing by the rental company.

§ Warranty

4.1 If the renter has made a legitimate claim concerning defects, the liability of the rental company to improve the situation is limited in cases where the defective items have been used prior to this event. The rental company can deliver a replacement at any time without cost.

§ 5 Orders received after the registration deadline

5.1 If the renter places an order after the specified deadline (see registration and order forms), the rental company cannot guarantee a timely and complete delivery. Above all, it cannot be guaranteed that the items can be delivered as ordered.

5.2 If an on time delivery is still possible in these cases, the renter will be charged separately an additional charge of at least 50 % of the rent for the additional costs caused by the late order.

5.3 A late order for supply connections will be charged according to costs, at least 50 % of the value of the order.

§ 6 Conditions of Payment

6.1 Invoices are due for payment within the statutory period without discount.

6.2 If the payment period has been exceeded, the renter shall be charged interest in the amount of interest demanded by the bank of the rental company. The rental company has the right, when normal bank interest is due, to charge persons described in § 24 Para. 1 General Conditions Laws, without delay, at least 5.0 percent points above the current prime interest rate of the European Central Bank. The rental company retains the right to charge for other damages against proof.

6.3 Checks will only be accepted as a means of payment, but not in lieu of cash payment. Their acceptance does not guarantee prompt and proper presentation. All charges and costs, in particular discount charges, shall be paid by the renter.

6.4 If the rental company has not received payment before the event, it reserves the right to cancel the contract.

6.5 Orders received 1 week or less before the beginning of the event shall only be accepted with prepayment.

§ 7 Liability of the renter

The liability of the renter for damages and losses of the items he has rented begins with the delivery and ends at the latest with the return or handing over of the items to the rental company at the end of the event.

7.2 The liability extends to the personnel used by the renter. This is not effective if the damages occur at the hands of the rental company or its personnel. The rental company is liable in this situation only for intended damage and gross negligence.

7.3 The renter is responsible for handling the rental items carefully. The rental items may not be pasted, nailed, painted or damaged in any way.

7.4 The renter may not make changes in the items rented to him, unless he has the prior permission of the rental company. Special identification already on the items may not be removed by the renter. Damages must be reported immediately to the rental company.

7.5 The rental items must be available for pick-up without delay at the close of the event.

7.6 If the renter defaults in preparing the rental goods for transfer, the rental company has the right to prepare these items for transport at the cost and risk of the renter. The agreement of the renter to this regulation is required.

§ 8 Liability of the rental company

8.1 The rental company is not liable for any damages to persons or goods, unless it or its personnel have caused the damage through intention or gross negligence.

8.2 If the rental company is in default of its service, it is only liable for intention and gross negligence. The same is valid when it is impossible to fulfil the services.

§ 9 Withdrawal of the exhibitor

If the rental company permits a withdrawal by the renter after the submission of a binding registration (§ 2), the renter owes 25 % of the agreed stand rent and must pay all related costs.

9.2 Withdrawal requires a written application. The application is effective only after written acceptance by the rental company. The rental company can grant the withdrawal dependent upon its ability to rent the area to a further party. If it is possible to rent the space to another renter, then the withdrawal is permitted; the exhibitor who wants to withdraw, however, is responsible for the costs due under 9.1 in addition to any difference between the rental price originally agreed upon and the amount actually taken in. If the area cannot be rented to another party, the rental company has the right in the interest of the general appearance to move another exhibitor to this empty space or to fill the space in another way. The rights of the rental company as in 9.1 are not affected. If the area is only filled or decorated, the costs shall be charged to the renter in addition to the charges due according to § 9.1.

9.3 The renter must in such cases prove that the rental company did not suffer these damages or damages in this amount under the conditions described in 9.1 and 9.2. The rental company can charge a larger amount for damages actually incurred.

§10 Rebooking/Changes in registration

10.1 Stand registrations are binding. A change to another type of space and the rejection of a prefabricated stand, if such a stand module has already been booked, can only occur without charge if undertaken before the relevant registration deadline. The transfer to a different type of stand space remains the right of the PKM GmbH.

10.2 Changes to other types of stands after the registration deadline are prohibited. Changes from a stand module to a stand area are only possible until 70 days before the beginning of the trade fair and will be charged 50 % of the difference between the m² price for stand modules and stand areas without a prefabricated stand.

§ 11 Non-occupation of the stand area

11.1 If the renter does not occupy the stand area by the evening before the event begins, the rental company has the right to fill or decorate the space in another manner in the interests of the general appearance. The costs for this will be carried by the renter.

11.2 The right of the rental company to charge rent is not affected hereby.

§ 12 Force majeure

12.1 If the rental company cannot carry out the event because of conditions beyond its control, it must notify the renters without delay. In general, the right to collect stand rent no longer exists, however the rental company can charge the renter for work undertaken in his name in the amount of actual expenditure, insofar as the results are of interest to the renter.

12.2 If it is possible for the rental company to carry out the work at a later date, it must inform the renters of this without delay. Renters have the right, within a week of receipt of this information, to cancel their participation on the changed date. In this case, they have the right to receive a full repayment or remission of the stand rent.

12.3 If the rental company must shorten or cancel an event that has already begun due to conditions beyond its control, the renter has no right to repayment or remission of the stand rent.

§ 13 Intrusion upon third party fair stands

Renters do not have the right to enter or view stands of others outside of the exhibition times without the permission of the relevant stand owner. This applies as well to lecture halls, marked demonstration space and all other rooms falling under the responsibility of the rental company. Cases of theft or intended damage will be handed over to the police.

§ Traffic regulations

14.1 General traffic laws apply to all vehicle traffic on the entire area of the fair grounds and on the fair ground car parks.

14.2 The instructions of the personnel at the car parks must be obeyed.

§ 15 National data protection act (BDSG) (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz)

15.1 Personal data concerning our business partners shall be saved and used according to §§ 28 & 29 of the BDSG in the framework of the purpose of the conditions of the contract.

§ 16 Concluding provisions

16.1 The effectiveness of the General Terms and Conditions shall not be affected by the ineffectiveness of one or more other conditions or provisions.

16.2 The regulations of the Civil Legal Code of the Federal Republic of Germany shall be effective so long as the rental company has not stipulated other business conditions.

16.3 The place of fulfilment and jurisdiction is Pforzheim.

16.4 In questions of dispute, the German text is legally binding.

HOUSE REGULATIONS

1. Sales of any sort to trade fair visitors are prohibited. This includes food and drinks.

2. Musical accompaniment is only permitted in cooperation with stand neighbours and then at moderate volume.

2.1 The renter is responsible for GEMA charges.

3. Display, posting and distribution of political information, etc. is prohibited. In addition, the arrangement and decoration of the stand may not include any political messages.

4. Affixing items to the walls and the floor outside of the rented area with posters and stickers is prohibited.

5. Unloading of items from vehicles during the fair must be completed at the latest before the daily opening time. Within one hour of the daily closing time for visitors, exhibitors and their assistants and guests must have left the trade fair grounds. Persons who want to leave the fair grounds with packages must prove the source of the packages at the exit checkpoint.

6. On days when the exhibition is set up and taken down, a deposit shall be made before driving on the fair grounds. This shall be completely refunded when the renter leaves the fair grounds within the prescribed time.

7. Animals may not be brought onto the fair grounds during the fair times or during set up and take-down times.

8. The rental company holds all rights to the property. All instructions given by personnel of the rental company must be obeyed.

9. If these rules and regulations are not followed, it is within the rights of the organiser to prohibit exhibitors from future participation in a fair of the PKM.
